GUEST

Aaron Lee is a prize-winning poet and writing mentor. He is also the co-editor of the anthologies No Other City and Love Gathers All. His work has appeared in many publications in Singapore and elsewhere. His first collection of poems released fully authored by him, A Visitation of Sunlight, was named one of the best books of 1997 by The Straits Times. The collection was well received and played a part in a late 1990s resurgence of interest in Singapore poetry centred around a new generation of Singapore poets. His new collection of poetry Five Right Angles was released in June last year.

SPEAKER / FACILITATOR

Felix Cheong Seng Fei (b. 1965, Singapore - ) is a poet and a recipient of the National Arts Council (NAC) Young Artist Award for Literature in 2000 and has published three volumes of poems. Cheong is also an active promoter of the Singapore literary arts scene. He currently works as a freelance writer for local newspapers and publications like Today, The New Paper, and The Edge, as well as an instructor for creative writing workshops. Cheong is also the chief editor for art-e, an ezine by the LaSalle-SIA College of the Arts.
