

This September, come and meet the aspiring writer - Isaac Cheong, who will share his story of being a young writer and his experience in publishing his first novel “The Golden Eagle Supremacy” in USA and releasing a new Asian edition in Singapore.

Date – 16th September 2011

Time – 7:00 pm

Venue – Living Room, L2, The Arts House
1 Old Parliament Lane

Admission is free. All are welcome!

Please send your contact details to info@bookcouncil.sg to register.

Isaac Cheong first began writing in secondary school and has loved it since. His first book, ‘The Golden Eagle Supremacy,’ is his first published book. Originally distributed in the USA, Cheong had decided to focus and centralize the sales to a more local context, thus the Asian Edition 3 years after the publication of its predecessor.

Mark Sullivan is the editor of “The Golden Eagle Supremacy” and a qualified TEFL teacher. Mark has been providing English tuition and proof-reading services to private clients and working on assignments in various education centres teaching English to primary and secondary school students, ever since arriving in Asia in April 2009.

Dr. David Fedo is a native of Minnesota and a long time teacher of literature and college administrator in the United States. He is currently the Executive Director and Visiting Scholar at the Singapore branch of the Wheelock College (Boston, Massachusetts, USA) Center for International Education, Leadership, and Innovation. He was on a panel at the Singapore Writers Festival 2009, which explored the works of contemporary Italian, Singaporean and American poets.

Organised by

NBDCS
The Book Council

Supported by

NATIONAL ARTS COUNCIL
SINGAPORE

www.bookcouncil.sg