4. Number of entries

Limited to ONE (1) submission per contestant.

5. Selection

The Book Council will check details concerning the eligibility of the authors and the manuscripts submitted. Only manuscripts of authors who meet the criteria will be accepted and sent to the judges. An independent panel of three judges, who are experts in the field of children's books, will select the winner from the manuscripts submitted by the Council. The judges' decision is final, and no appeals or correspondence will be entertained at any point.

6. Shortlist

The Organising Committee will announce a short list of works considered for the Scholastic Asian Book Award in April 2018. Shortlisted candidates are encouraged to be present at the Award Ceremony at the end of May 2018.

7. Award Presentation

The award will be presented at a prize-giving ceremony during the Asian Festival of Children's Content (AFCC), to be held in Singapore at the end of May, each year. Prize winners will be invited for the awards ceremony. Travel and accommodation costs of the Grand Prize winner will be met by Scholastic Asia.

8. The Award

The 2018 Scholastic Asian Book Award will be awarded in May 2018, at the AFCC, in Singapore.

9. Media Promotion

The award details will be separately and officially announced in newspapers and other media in all countries, particularly countries in Asia. The details of the award will also be disseminated to interested people and organisations.
