

Book Launch: The Dragon Phoenix Bracelet

BOOK SYNOPSIS:

Three children are born into a privileged family in early twentieth-century China, each destined to face a dramatic struggle for survival. Set against the backdrop of political instability and war, The Dragon Phoenix Bracelet follows the fortunes of the siblings as they try to negotiate life in a changing society.

LAUNCH DETAILS:

Date: 23 November 2014

Time: Sunday, 3-5pm Registration begins at 3 pm

Venue: Multi-purpose room, B1, NLB, 100 Victoria Street, Singapore 188064

Guest speaker: Mr. Wan Wee Pin, Deputy Director, Engagement, National Library Board and Assistant Director of the Singapore Memory Project

Contact: alap@bookcouncil.sg

This event is free and open to public.

Register your attendance here

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Monica Li graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in English Literature and Japanese Studies from the National University of Singapore. Fluent in English, Mandarin Chinese and Cantonese, Monica specialises in technology public relations and she has worked in Hong Kong, Singapore and the United States.

Organised by

Venue Partner

